Cafe Training Project

The Café Training Project was established in 1997 and was formed to provide education, training and work experience in a catering and hospitality environment to disadvantaged groups of people within Edinburgh.

The Café Training Project provides tailored training, development and social support to a team of trainees and volunteers

Trainee Placements

The Café Training Project provides trainee placements for people who would like to gain work experience and catering skills in a work environment. Trainee placements are between six months and a year

Going Forward

The Café Training Project will primarily be working with young people:

- Young people with learning difficulties
- Young offenders
- Young people with a mental health issue
- School/college placement
- Referrals from Right Track and Project Scotland etc.
- Young parents
- Young Carers
- Young people leaving care

The Skills Accreditation Programme

The Skills Accreditation Programme is a six month training programme that all trainees and volunteers can access and is accredited through Borders College.

The range of subjects include:

- Food hygiene
- Bakery skills
- Cooking skills
- Customer service
- Cash handling

Volunteer positions

The Café Training Project is regularly looking for volunteers who can help us support vulnerable trainees and who would like to gain work experience within a catering environment.

Volunteers are trained and supported throughout their time on the project and are also able to access training e.g. REHIS Food Hygiene and The Skills Accreditation Programme.

Numeracy and Literacy Classes

The Centre works in partnership with City of Edinburgh Community Learning and Development to deliver adult literacy and numeracy classes to cafe trainees and to people within the local community.

Classes are held on a Wednesday from 11.30 to 1.30 in term time.

Job Club

Tuesday 1-3pm, all welcome. The job club will provide support with improving employability skills etc. aimed at trainees and the wider local community.
