

Are you a woman with a story to tell?

Women are brilliant storytellers and Wildfire Theatre wants to find new voices and let them be heard. Whether your story is funny, epic, heartbreaking, family legend or just the everyday struggle of family life. We want to hear it.

Have you ever wanted to write or had an idea but didn't know quite how to get it down on paper. Perhaps you've thought 'It's not good enough' or 'no one wants to hear that' We do!

Wildfire is a theatre company made up of four women living in Edinburgh who grew up listening to the women in our communities tell stories that no one would ever have expected them to write down or have told in a theatre. Why not?

We want to show the creative power of women who often play second fiddle every day to the kids, work, their husbands or partners. Sometimes happily, sometimes not.

If you have a story niggling away at the back of your mind or in a drawer and haven't done anything with it, or just want to tell your own story, come and have a chat and a cup of tea and share your voice or words with us.

You'll find us at the following venues-
