PUPPET ANIMATION FESTIVAL

Puppet Animation Festival Workshops

Tuesday 4th April, 10.30am – 12.30pm

Ages 7-12

Visual Storytelling: No Words Allowed!

By Two Detectives

What if you had to tell a story, but you weren't allowed to say any words? What on earth would you do? How could you tell your tale? We'll explore how we can use puppetry and object manipulation to tell stories. We'll also play lots of noisy and silly games in the session – because you can't be quiet for a whole two hours!

Monday 10th April, 10.30am – 12.30pm

Ages 5-8

Paper Puppets! Cut-out Animation Workshop

By The Zoom Club

Get snipping as we chop and change paper characters and create an animated film using paper people and stop-motion techniques to help them leap into life!

Puppet Animation Festival Show

Wednesday 12th April, 10.30am – 12.30pm

Ages 4+

Sir Moustache Bristleby & The Ed-Splorers

By Charlotte Hastings and Company

A vivid blend of visual and verbal storytelling theatre, with original rhymes, shadow theatre and musical interludes – Sir Moustache Bristleby is an engaging and interactive theatrical adventure across the world for young audiences.
