INCREDIBLE DISTANCE

Are you 18 or over and interested in exploring your creativity, meeting people and taking part in an inspiring group project? Come and work with musicians from the Scottish Chamber Orchestra to write and record original songs!

You don't need any musical experience or equipment to get involved. The workshops will be led by Emma Smith, with musicians from the SCO and composer Suzanne Parry. You will create lyrics and music together with the group and learn about recording techniques. The songs will be professionally recorded and performed.
